

NO MORE CAR SHOWS ON THIS PLANET - STOP IAA

(c) Erik Školiber

IAA-Activities around the theatre yurt

We are a global network of theatre activists called Resilient Revolt. During the IAA we will set up a theatre yurt at the Mobilitätswende Camp in Munich. We invite you to performative direct actions against the upcoming International Car Exhibition (IAA). We welcome everyone interested to join our actions/workshops. We cover transport costs and accommodation.

More information can be found here
Please register to our workshops here

Information About our Workshops and Other Happenings:

WORKSHOP 1:

Reclaim the streets with theatre (intense theatre workshop)

Duration?	2,5 days
Where?	Resilient Revolt Tent at the Climate Camp
Times?	Preparation: as soon as you register Workshop time: 7th September 15:00-19:00 8th September 10:00-19:00 9th September 10-19:00 Dress Rehearsal with newcomers: (if you can only come for the weekend – please indicate at registration) 10th September 15:00-19:00 Action: Sometime between 11th September in the morning and 12th September before noon at a time and location of our choosing Reflection and Out of Action: 12th September, 13-15:00
Commitment?	We ask you kindly to commit to be part of the whole process even though a lot of other things will happen at the camp during these day literally all the time.
What will we do?	We'll prepare a performance action that can be stage around or on the IAA premises in Munich. Before, there will be a collective research and discussion process about the politics behind this event. As soon as you register we will include you into our horizontal thought and decision process.
Goals?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Expose the IAA as a capitalist greenwashing event ○ raise more awareness in major media ○ the performance action shall be a way to support direct actions of “Sand im Getriebe” and other mass civil disobedience happening to block the IAA

Methods?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ We'll use the non-violent protest forms that the theatre of the oppressed provides ○ We'll use our bodies performatively and politically ○ Invisible Theatre (Augusto Boal)

WORKSHOP 2:

Poetry of the Oppressed

When?	9th of September, 13:00 - 17:00
What?	Together we discover the Poetry as a channel to express the urgency of the above mentioned topics and our related feelings and emotions. We plan to use our poems in the direct actions in the weekend. If you want to join the workshop it would be great if you come on time to get the full experience.
Contact?	anjafranziska@gmail.com
Where?	Resilient Revolt tent at the IAA protest camp

WORKSHOP 3:

Photography of the Oppressed

When?	8th of September, 13:00 - 17:00
-------	---------------------------------

What?	Together we discover the different ways how to document and process the topics of oppression, climate crisis, greenwashing ect. via photography and filming. Bring your favorite camera/video camera or borrow one from us. A mobile phone is also sufficient. If you want to join the workshop it would be great if you come on time to get the full experience.
Where?	Resilient Revolt tent at the IAA protest camp

WORKSHOP 4

Understanding Power

When?	10th of September, ca. 1:30 hours (time will be announced soon)
What?	The Zapatista claim that the purpose of revolutionary acts is not to take over or destroy power, but to transform it. Thus the relationship between the oppressive and the oppressed needs to be reflected and recreated in a way that an non-exploitative kind of relationship becomes possible. Theatre of the oppressed offers us methods to understand and transform relationships of power. In this workshop we collectively explore the power-relationships of our own bodies and minds.
Where?	Resilient Revolt tent at the Mobilitätswende Camp
Contact?	tdu_muc@posteo.de

WORKSHOP 5

Self Care for Activists

When?	12th of September, ca 2:30 hours (time will be announced soon)
What?	Organizing food and infrastructure for thousands of activists, sitting in blockades, going through GeSa, hosting endless assemblies, writing emergency PR-statements late at night and so on is exhausting. It may cause conditions of burn-out or trauma. What can we do against it? Collective care and trauma-releasing body work may help to overcome acute exhaustions and can be used as a skill to relief stresses.
Where?	Resilient Revolt tent at the Mobilitätswende Camp
Contact?	tdu_muc@posteo.de

WORKSHOP 6

Reflection Round of Direct Actions During IAA (Blockades, Theatre etc.)

When?	12th of September, ca. 1:30 hours (time will be announced soon)
What?	How did the diversity of tactics we used to block the IAA work out? What worked well? What did fail? What can we learn for the next time? Are there things missing within our strategies and actions? How do we proceed?
Where?	Resilient Revolt tent at the Mobilitätswende Camp

Contact?	tdu_muc@posteo.de

Other Happenings

Resilience Self Care

When?	Every morning from 10:00 to 12:00
What?	Resilience Self Care which can consist of meditations, Chigong, Yoga and other practices. If you want to offer a session, please contact us (anjafranziska@gmail.com). There will be a time table at the tent with the information what kind of practice will be offered at which day.
Where?	Resilient Revolt tent at the Mobilitätswende Camp
Wanna offer something?	If you want to offer a session, please contact us: anjafranziska@gmail.com

Open Art Box

What?	Here you can find material and resources which you can use whenever and however you like, for example to create posters and other materials for the direct actions or just to process your experiences, feelings and emotions in a creative way.
-------	--

Open Space of Theatre of the Oppressed

What?	We will offer an Open Space where you can relax and recover and approach the topic of oppression, climate crisis and greenwashing with creativity.
Where?	Resilient Revolt tent at the Mobilitätswende Camp